

New Norcia Hotel Supervisor MONOCHORUM LTD

New Norcia is a historical town 132 kms from Perth and is home to a number of operating businesses all owned and run by the Benedictine Monks. The New Norcia Hotel require the services of a Hotel Supervisor to work along with the existing team to provide good old fashioned quality hospitality to our locals and visitors to the area.

If you are looking to take a step in growing your career in Hospitality and are willing to relocate if needed this could be your next role.

In this role you will work in conjunction with the Administration team and be responsible for

- Consistency in the provision of Excellence in Customer service
- Hands on approach to all aspects of the day to day running of the hotel
- Creating rosters and taking the lead within your team
- Oversight of the accommodation bookings
- Take a lead role in supervising standards of service in the Restaurant and Bar
- Stock levels and stock control
- High levels of cleanliness and presentation across the Hotel

If you have:

- Hold a current RSA and Approved Manager qualification
- Excellent customer service skills
- Experience as a Supervisor in a similar role
- Experience in rostering
- Have good levels of personal physical fitness
- Willing to relocate if required to New Norcia
- Have or will obtain a current police clearance

On site accommodation is available to the suitable applicant and schools are accessible in the area. The role offers an attractive remuneration package.
